Every birth occurring after the first day of January, 1877, within the limits of Baltimore City, shall be reported to the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Board of Health, Baltimore City, by the physician, midwife, or other person in attendance upon the mother, immediately thereafter, and shall become the duty of the person or parents of such child to report the same within ten days after the birth. In case the birth of any child shall occur without the attendance of a physician or practitioner of midwifery, or should no other person be in attendance upon the mother immediately thereafter, it shall become the duty of the person or parents of such child to report the same within ten days after the birth. In case the parents of such child shall reside elsewhere than in the house where the birth occurred, the duty imposed by this section shall devolve upon the person in charge of such house at the time of the birth. And any such person or persons who shall hereafter fail to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subjected to the fine of ten ($10) dollars for each offence, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable.

Health. This schedule shall contain a list of the births which occurred in each family during the month, and shall set forth as far as possible the name and occupation of its parents, the date and place of birth, and the name, if any, of each child. It shall be delivered, duly signed by the practitioner in the form of a certificate, to the parent or other person in charge of the house in which the birth occurred, within ten days after the birth has been registered, and every month to the office of the Commissioner of Health. In the absence of a physician or midwife, the parent or other person in charge of the house in which the birth occurred shall cause the birth of any child to be registered within ten days after its occurrence, and shall, within the first three days of each and every month to the office of the Commissioner of Health, report all births which have occurred during the preceding month, and which have not been attended by a physician or midwife. Hereafter it shall become the duty of the person or parents of such child to report the birth to the Commissioner of Health. In the summer and whenever the Commissioner of Health may deem it necessary, he shall cause a sanitary inspector to visit each house in which a birth occurred, and see that the provisions of this section are complied with. Any such person or persons who shall hereafter fail to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subjected to the fine of ten (10) dollars for each offence, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable.
